Please Read This Release Carefully and Sign It Below

The participating individual named on this entry has voluntarily entered an AMA, MTVRA event, the Rock Pile Enduro, on June 28, 2009. The participant releases the AMA, MTVRA, landowners and lessees, and persons acting in their behalf, from liability, including officers of the above organizations. The participant accepts all liability for injuries or damages incurred by the participant during this event. The participant acknowledges that the AMA, MTVRA cannot protect him/her from injuries or damages incurred during this event due to the inherently dangerous nature of off-road motorcycle racing, even if harm or damages result from the negligence of the AMA, MTVRA (for example, if participant is not warned of a dangerous condition on the race course). Participant agrees that he/she will be financially responsible for any medical expenses arising from injuries suffered in this event.

Motorsports are inherently dangerous. Do not enter this event without adequate medical insurance. You should take part in this event based on your assessment of your ability. You are responsible for your equipment and protective apparel. The MTVRA are not experts at marking trails or promoting enduros. Not all obstacles or hazards may be marked. The course is dangerous, so ride at your own risk. The participant agrees that he/she and/or heirs, executors, administrators, and assignees will not seek to recover from the American Motorcyclist Association, MTVRA, landowners or any person acting on their behalf, any expenses incurred as the result of injuries or damages, including paralysis or death, to myself sustained in this event. I, the participant, have read this release and I understand and agree to its terms.
